A person's absence from court can be equally revealing: from 931 to 956, failed to attest any royal charters between 936 and 941, during which time he was fought between Æthelstan and an alliance of the king of , and the king. The charters contain an unusual amount of valuable topographical detail -in descriptions of location, in comments on the appurtenances of an estate and especially within the boundary clauses which accompany many of the grants or leases. This charter was for the foundation of a coenubium.
