

Modernization of Indian tradition - a systemic study of social change

Thomson Press (India), Publication Division - Social Change

Description: -

-

Italy -- Intellectual life -- 20th century -- Congresses.

Italian periodicals -- Italy -- History -- 20th century -- Congresses.

Jewish ethics.

Talmud Torah (Judaism)

Mishnah. -- Avot VI -- Commentaries.

India -- Social conditions.

Social changeModernization of Indian tradition - a systemic study of social change

-Modernization of Indian tradition - a systemic study of social change

Notes: Includes bibliographical references and index.

This edition was published in 1977

Filesize: 7.83 MB

Tags: #Modernization #Theory

Modernization of Indian Tradition: Analysis

For example, the five years plan made by the government.

Modernization Of Indian Tradition By Yogendra Singh Pdf 22

Despite the acceptance, the balance seems in favour of the choice for indigenous technology instead of foreign technology. But it is very significant that within the professional groups from where most of the bureaucratic elite are being recruited, the share of the families with lower incomes is increasing and monopoly of this status by the higher income groups and higher castes is slowly breaking down.

Modernization Of Indian Tradition

Muslim communalism has also become active and forceful in some parts of northern India and Kerala.

Modernization Of Indian Tradition By Yogendra Singh Pdf 22

It has to be firmly rooted in God as creator and protector. Alternatively, industrialization prompted the specialization of tasks that, with a more complex division of labor, resulted in institutional differentiation pp.

Modernization Of Indian Tradition

Expansion at all levels was considered crucial to social mobility and decreased inequality.

Review: HISTORY AND TRADITION IN INDIAN SOCIETY : NULL AND ALTERNATE HYPOTHESES? on JSTOR

In this vein were studies of the oil economy, which was gaining importance in the 1970s, focusing on the structure of oil-based rentier states as well as the regional and international migration of labor.

Yogendra Singh

The intellectual and bureaucratic elite who are culturally nearer the value system of modernization are. Elites represent the standards of value-excellence in different domains of life through their roles which are either ascribed to them, as in the traditional society, or have been achieved by them by meritorious performance, which is the norm of a relatively modernized society. The four articles adopt different methodological tools including ethnography, interviews, media and literary analysis, and address the issue of the family through several themes: sexuality and relationship; class, community, and gender; and media representations of the changing family.

Related Books

- De la commémoration dun code à lautre - 200 ans de procédure civile en France : 1806-1976-2006
- Picture palaces - past-age postcards : 24 authentic old postcards - ready to mail
- Bargaining manager - enhancing organizational results through effective negotiation
- Three Auld brothers and their descendants - Samuel Auld \(1755-1835\), William Auld \(1768-1829\), John
- Teaching cues for sport skills