There is also a very rich, dense set of marginalia to the Guide written by a Muslim; that is a whole other story. It was at this point that I realized how much I wanted to be able to study the Zohar from an English translation that would draw upon the research and scholarship of the past half-century. Pnei Moshe, o único comentário que cobre todo o Talmude de Jerusalém, foi completamente escrito pelo Rabino Moshe Margolies, onde foi publicado pela primeira vez em Amsterdã em 1775.
