But his sense of artistic bolshiness saw him turning down plenty of lucrative offers from TV stations for a comedy vehicle of his choosing. Our all-singing, all-dancing 15-minute cabaret show left the audience speechless. Hughes worked on the show from 1996 to 2002 but was always astonished at how so flimsy a comedic concept could be so well received.

Sheila loves hecklers and will use them to add to the spontaneity of the show. For the past five years Sheila has been an honorary member of the society and attended and performed at many of our high profile events. Likewise, movements such as dance, contortion, acrobatics, and circus skills are highly physical and artists will have a maximum time they can perform for.

Stellar comedy line

He has also developed huge success on the international circuit where he has performed to capacity audiences in Canada, France, Australia, New Zealand and the United States. But he created their music at least, you say? Although often attacked with critics, this Irish TV show has become a huge hit in Ireland and the UK as well as growing in Australia, New Zealand and Canada. This is to prevent fraudulent enquiries and bookings.
