Ezekiel 28:17; Emphasis Mine Satan got wrapped up in his own beauty and splendor, and as a result, he thought he could be a god as well, and that all those in heaven should bow down in reverence to him as they do God. But after getting beat up by girls younger than him, he quickly learns his place. This creates an image of a scary thug like man who takes no prisoners, but as James discovers while undercover, he is actually a nice person who cares for other people as well as himself.

Class A (Cherub, #2) by Robert Muchamore
