Japanese sociology and social anthropology : a guide to Japanese reference and research materials / compiled by Richard K. Beardsley, Nakano Takashi ; contributions by Morioka Kiyomi, Okada Yuzuru ; with indexes to authors and localities.

Shina 32t-fChina , ToZkyii, Toa D~obunkai, monthly since 1939. An extension of previous descriptive report JZ, 1941 , comparing these with Ainu and Japanese modern bones. Entries in this section are selected as guides to research on Japanese society, not as guides to the disciplines of anthropology and sociology.

Dissertation

A half dozen of the pre-war periodicals listed here for their significant contributions were nevertheless short-lived.

These illusory procedures are accepted by the devotees in the audiences in the same way that the all-male cast is received in the kabuki and the puppeteers, dolls, samisen players, and chanters in the puppet drama. He further argues that to pray at the ocean or to pray to the ocean gods was the first religious practice of someone engaging in the Shikoku pilgrimage 2009: 13 , and he gives the example of the very long walk along the beach between Cape Muroto temple 24, Hotsumisaki-ji and Cape Ashizuri 38, Kongōfuku-ji 2009: 16.

Sign languages in: A Bibliography of Sign Languages, 2008

Bringing it all together, the particular issue that this research addresses is that while Kōbō Daishi figures large in many of the popular presentations of the pilgrimage in guidebooks, TV programmes, and in temple pamphlets , there is a question of what role he actually plays in the outlook and practices of contemporary pilgrims.

UHM Library : Japan Collection New Acquisitions

The battles in China were covered by a large number of writers sent by the Army, the Naikaku Johobu or Information Section of the Japanese Cabinet, and by a group of magazines.
