Shakespeare's Politics

Either his notion weakens, his discernings Are lethargied—Ha! One generation prior, when most people remained tied to the land of their parents' birthplace, theater was confined to small groups of traveling players, revelry on feast days, and private celebrations sponsored by aristocrats in the great manor homes. The Elizabethan plays and theatres were as popular as the movies and cinemas of the early 20th century. You
