Corporate Strategic Plan

Condominium Act Approvals Generally, a condominium is a development where separate units are owned by individuals, but common elements or areas of common use, such as the grounds, structure, mechanical components and amenity areas are jointly owned by those owning individual units.

Official Plan

This agreement contractually binds the owner to develop and maintain a site in accordance with the approved plans and the terms of the agreement.

Corporate Strategic Plan

It says this conservation would be best achieved by a combination of active, co-operative citizens and provision and enforcement of building standards.

Site Plan Control

The city adopted the Official Plan in 1996. The process is handled by the Committee of Adjustment. The report also recommends a planned approach to municipal design and guidance for the developing appearance of the community and the formation of a design review board to oversee this process.

Land Division

This will require various reports identifying all common elements and outlining any repairs or replacements that may be required in the foreseeable future, as well as projected costs.
