Clay Pipes

Marmet Regge, Ebonite stems Dr. During the excavations a number of historical artefacts and building remains were discovered.

London Clay Pipe Studies: Abstracts

The Akron Smoking Pipe Company operated in Mogadore, Summit County, Ohio from 1885 to 1895. This remained the principal means of marking pipes right through to the 20th century, although stamped marks on the bowl became popular in the Victorian era, together with full names and addresses stamped or moulded along the stem. The genealogies of the Montreal Bannerman and the Gilboy families are presented in Figures 2 and 3.

Clay Tobacco Pipes at Penn Valley Pipes

Makers: Philip Edwards I or II, fl. Factory made pipes mainly for export. A practical advantage of these pipes were that they offered a better grip because they were less smooth.
