Is there some kind of lineage here? These three mini-biographies remind us that we are not the first to wonder how we can endure and persevere, not the first to feel things coming undone, not the first to be tempted to despair. The most influential variable, percentage of students from economically disadvantaged homes, has an elasticity of -95%. But the table presenting means, and its graphic presentation in particular, clearly show that the EG, namely the group with three non-hearing students, has an advantage over the CG in all dimensions and in general self-concept.

Stop hoping, and you start dying.

As well, Duquette, Stodel, Fullarton and Hagglund 2006a and Ackerman 1998 suggest allowing the student with FASD to learn how to work independently, to not control them, to help them manage their own behaviour, and to assign attainable workloads so they can successfully complete them. After the four messages there is a study guide, with thoughtful reflection questions for each of the four chapters. However, there has been an increase in the prescription of multiple psychiatric medications for school age youth.
