Fragments were taken out of various legal treatises and opinions and inserted in the Digesta. Perhaps he felt his Christmas court was a suitable time to air the idea — both in terms of Christian symbolism and given that many of his nobles could be present. While turning its own land to more profitable crops, western Europe could still enjoy cheap grain from eastern Europe.

Church and Society in the Last Centuries of Byzantium

The prefect Liberius reclaimed most of southern Iberia, establishing the province of Spania. But, while English cloth output rose, English wool exports and the volume of Flemish cloth declined. The first quasi provincial governor was a son of Orhan I r.
