History of Ravenna

Soon after the damsel, as if none of this punishment had been inflicted on her, started up suddenly, running amain towards the seashore, and the hounds swiftly following her, as the knight did the like, after he had taken his sword and was mounted on horseback, so that Anastasio had soon lost all sight of them, and could not guess what could become of them. This in part explains the special luminosity of our mosaic.

Day Trip to Ravenna: What to See in Italy's Mosaic Capital

As kings as well as priests, we are called not just to give thanks for all creation, but also to work within it to transform it like bees. The way that the holy bishop and martyr is set within the scene suggests that he has a broader significance.
