Correctional Service administers a complaint and three-level grievance process.

Origins, Historical Developments, and Assessments

The Board found that although the higher freight rates in Western Canada might be discriminatory, they were justified by the greater competition that the railway companies faced in the eastern provinces and that the rates were, in fact, reasonable.

Origins, Historical Developments, and Assessments

One of the arguments made by Liberal opponents was that the bills we passed, namely Bills and , were backdoor bills. Permitting foreign air carriers to provide services between points in Canada has the potential to further promote competition on routes within Canada.

Senate, Debates, 30 March 1971 :: Historic Hansard

Be that as it may, on May 2, 1945, the Union made a further application to the Regional Board as a new case, and the Regional Board proceeded to deal with the application and issued decision thereon, granting substantially the same increase to substantially the same occupational classification as those covered by their previous decision which had been set aside by the National Board. To ensure effective and efficient coordination of rules and policies adopted by the Commission and the Secretary, the Secretary shall assign an individual who is knowledgeable about and experienced in the rule-making processes of the Commission and the Secretary and in the fields of mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse to assist the Commission in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. At the end of their respective terms of office, the appointments shall be for a term of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualify.

Legislative Summary for Bill C

Let me tell you a little bit about our industry. We have to grapple with the situation in which our rural industries find themselves. It is proposed that the Commonwealth lend to the Board sufficient funds to enable it to discharge its debt to the Bank.
