Discussions on the National Bursary Scheme are continuing. Adleisiwyd yr un thema gan unigolion eraill a gyfrannodd at y drafodaeth. The full proposal for collaboration with Lampeter in History and Welsh History and been completed, and work is continuing on several other initiatives, including Welsh medium provision with Bangor, collaboration in the Social Sciences with Cardiff in which the Department of International Politics and IGES are important participants, in Mathematical and Computational Sciences led by Swansea, and in Archaeology led by Lampeter.

ERIC

In none of the cases just mentioned does the ancient language gather around it powerful emotional associations affecting large numbers of people, but this is the case in Wales. The partnership with Bangor is not to the exclusion of other links, and useful discussions are also taking place with a range of collaborators on a number of possibilities and not only research.

ERIC

. Research The research monitoring meetings with departments took place in January. The strategy for Welsh medium provision within Aberystwyth is developing well and I should like to thank the Pro Vice-Chancellor, Professor Aled Jones and the Director of Welsh medium provision, Professor Ioan Williams — and indeed many others — for their work in this regard.

Y Brython, 7 Ionawr 1937, 24 Mawrth 1938. Separately a committee has been established to look into and advise on an appropriate package of fees and financial support for part-time students. We are also involved in pan-Wales proposals, including an options appraisal for how best to deliver Welsh medium teaching in future.
