Blessed are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful.

Beggars All: Reformation And Apologetics: Calvin on the Death of Non

For when I am in private, I am usually dull and stupid to a strange degree, or the prey to a wild and ungoverned imagination; so that I may truly say, when I would do good, evil, horrid evil, is present with me! O Lord, today we know once more, and in quite practical terms, what it means to clear away the rubble and make paths smooth again. Let us be patient and wait, wait with Advent readiness for the moment when it pleases God to appear in our night too, as the fruit and mystery of this time. .
