Time and Western Man

Riders to Cibola by Norman Zollinger In this saga beginning in the days of Pancho Villa, Ignacio Ortiz, an orphan and a runaway searching for his past, lives through eras of intense change, including two world wars and the beginning of the modern West. Oh James Spader's pompous hotelier is another high point in a production that usually operates a constant low. She hugs Tom and boards the stage, but at the last minute, overwhelmed by feelings of love for the young cowboy, steps down with her bags.
