He objects to the nature of the assessment proposed in the Bill. The Council recognised the value of both events, and I have no doubt that they will provide an important platform on which to build economic growth and prosperity.

Dr Iain Deas

Mungret railway line is under the furthest span in the frame, the creek is in a culvert.

To be fair, NAMA has shown, through its behaviour, that it takes a much longer-term approach to the assets that it has. In those days of popular remonstrance against the acts or wishes of Government was seldom heard of and more seldom effectual. It appears from Silk and Calman as well as the response from Treasury that the only powers on offer are land-based powers, such as stamp duty and landfill tax, which cannot be easily moved across boundaries.

The final total was £9.6million and, further, it was delivered four years late. Your petitioners moreover observe that the Police Chowkeydars to be employed under the projected law are to be invested with sundry powers to oversee the sanitary condition of the towns etc in which they are to be employed.

Limerick Transport

Enough land was acquired for the N7 and the realigned N24 stretch and yet the interchange is a dangerous mess! I spoke to some of those civil servants in Derry, and it is they, not somebody whipping it up, who are seriously concerned. Saxena, while discussing the MDG targets and challenges said that national poverty reduction programmes are under the spotlight more than ever before.

Back in the mid 80s when the Shannon bridge was in planning the opportunity was there to make it a 4 lane bridge for — if I remember correctly an extra million pounds... Really? But I think that that should be effective in the manner lately sanctioned by the Court of Directors, namely, by extending the jurisdiction of the Police of Calcutta, under the Chief Magistrate over the Suburbs of that city. And unlike the new rail service, or the upcoming motorway to Galway, any journey could link Limerick and the Western Seaboard in just 20 minutes, according to company director Emlyn Heap.

Unsurprisingly, given that principles tend to relate to strategic and policy positions, stage one policy and planning was selected by the most participants regarding 10 of the 14 principles; and overall stage one was the most selected stage by participants across all principles. That actually corresponds with some very positive job announcements here in the North as well. Further possibilities for collaboration to draw down funding that are mutually beneficial continue to be explored.
