Chapter in Book, Report or Conference volume (2007)

Although these shortcomings are enough to convince us that we must not defer to the Discipline Procedure's results, there is an even greater shortcoming at the heart of the process: how the The Discipline Procedure has nothing to say about actual decision-maker is to decide the case.

Miller v. Sam Houston State University, No. 19

And there is probably no better way of ending the University's carefully balanced shared governance than turning relationship into an adversarial contest.
