Tapestry: Live in Hyde Park (CD/DVD)

Maybe one of the reasons they sound strong is the fact that Roger Daltrey and Pete Townshend don't run away from their age.

Hyde Park Live

The spent much of 2015 celebrating their 50th anniversary, releasing a new compilation -- the aptly named -- and performing two big concerts in the U. Pete was playing passionately too.

DVD review: 'The Who Live at Hyde Park'

If they're OK with sounding older, they're not going quietly into the good night: they'd rather sharpen the set list and deliver it with all the energy they can muster and the result is a surprisingly strong show, one that feels like a summation of their enduring strengths while just escaping being a last testament.
