Framed Shrewsbury pickets seek justice at Court of Appeal after 47 years

It can only be hoped that this matter will now be resolved quickly with justice being achieved for the Shrewsbury 24 pickets. This post appeared in the Morning Star 12th February.

Justice for Shrewsbury Pickets Campaign

The campaign wants to know the truth: who planned and gave the orders for the police attack on defenceless miners, who orchestrated the prosecutions. They have always maintained their innocence. In 2009, just 45 Labour MPs backed the EDM of more than 350 elected in 2005.

Shrewsbury pickets get their day in court after 50 years of injustice

This legal work is interwoven with the second part of our activity, taking the case of the Shrewsbury 24 to every trade union and labour movement event the length and breadth of Britain.

The Official Shrewsbury 24 Campaign

Des Warren, now deceased, and Ricky Tomlinson — — were jailed for conspiracy to intimidate, unlawful assembly and affray, following altercations at a construction site in Shrewsbury two years before.
