Defense Comptrollership Program (MBA/EMPA)

However, the conversion of an Intern NTE should be rare as an Intern NTE positions are to be used to complete temporary projects, perform labor-intensive tasks not requiring subject-matter expertise, or fill traditional summer jobs. This two-year program of professional development is accomplished through formal classroom training and a series of rotational on-the-job training with Department of Defense agencies throughout the United States. An applicant with a disability may apply to positions in the Pathways program by following the instructions found in the job opportunity announcement on.

DOD SkillBridge

The lasting benefits of the program are premised on the conviction that a working knowledge of resource management is one of the basic skills required of a successful officer in all military assignments. Interns work for a 10-week period from June through August, as full-time, temporary employees.

Defense Intelligence Agency Internships

Graduates are awarded a Master of Business MBA degree and an Executive Master of Public Administration EMPA degree. This website uses features which update page content based on user actions. Trainees sign a mobility agreement requiring them to relocate at government expense for their permanent duty assignment.

DLA Pathways to Career Excellence (PaCE) Program

Army Human Resources Command; or from the Office of the Chief, Army Reserve; the Office of the Director, Army National Guard; and other Service Assistant Secretaries of Financial Management. It will provide the essential educational skills for financial managers to assist the DOD's leadership in making the hard resource decisions to transition Defense to a more efficient and effective organization. Internship Program The Internship Program replaces the Student Career Experience Program SCEP and Student Temporary Employment Program STEP.

Defense Intelligence Agency Internships

You would be a Federal Civil Service employee and have no military obligation. Our topic areas range from defense spending to Homeland Security programs; from undue influence to strengthening government ethics standards and whistleblower protections. The agency must provide each Fellow a minimum of 80 hours of formal interactive training per year, and must provide each Fellow with at least one 4-6 month development assignment during their 2-year fellowship.

Students & Recent Graduates

What are the job placement procedures once I finish the training? Agencies cannot select a non-preference eligible veteran over a preference eligible veteran with an equal or higher score without going through the applicable pass over procedures. Work includes providing oversight and evaluate the efficiency of assigned disposal activities through statistical analysis, automated information system reports, and quality assurance inspections and reports. Students are eligible to work full-time for up to 14 weeks or part-time for up to 28 weeks.
