Changes in the Muslim world

Some social theorists have suggested that as countries develop economically, more of their inhabitants will move away from religious affiliation. The GCC states have an annual Meeting of the Youth and Sports ministers to boost youth and sports initiatives in the region; in 2015, this gathering was held for the 29th time.

The Islamic World and Modern Challenges

Muslims are the followers of the Islamic faith. Muslims in 2050 are expected to make up more than 50% of the population in 51 countries, two more than in 2010, as both the Republic of Macedonia and Nigeria are projected to gain Muslim majorities. Following the GATT commitment to nondiscrimination, GATS requires member nations to treat foreign service companies as they would domestic ones.

List of Organisation of Islamic Cooperation member states by exports

The long history of misunderstanding, mistrust, and animosity continues to inform the attitudes of many people in both communities of faith. These types of patterns are projected to continue as future generations come of age.

Muslim

Through education, literacy, use of the press and by maintaining close ties with Islamic intellectuals from the Ottoman empire to India, the Jadids established a place for their traditions not only within the changing culture of their own land but also within the larger modern Islamic world. Neutral Muslim Majority Countries In a neutral Muslim-majority country, the population is overwhelmingly Muslim without Islam being the state religion. With 153 member nations, the WTO is the largest, global trade organization.
