However, if the same goal is just 3-5 years away, the focus should be on saving or protecting wealth with safe avenues. International Developed Large Company Stocks—Fundamental International developed large company stocks — fundamental are investments in the equities of larger foreign companies that are included in fundamental indexes, which screen and weight companies based on fundamental factors such as sales, cash flow and dividends. Preferred securities generally have lower credit ratings and a lower claim to assets than the issuer's individual bonds.
