Instrument of Government (1809)

The opening chapter also states that the Riksdag enacts the laws, the King or Queen shall be Head of State, the Government governs the Realm and the courts shall observe objectivity and impartiality. The results of a referendum of this kind are only binding if a majority vote against the proposal.

Documents and laws

At that time, it was definitively established that ministers were politically responsible not just legally to the Riksdag.

Sweden: The Instrument of Government was adopted on June 6, 1809

When the Government appoints a commission of inquiry it also provides a set of guidelines for the commission's work. The principle of public access to official documents The Freedom of the Press Act also contains the principle of public access to official documents.

Instrument of Government (1809)

The purpose of these questions is to receive information about a specific matter. The bill is then submitted to the Riksdag.
