Sri Hari

Its authorized share capital is Rs. THIRD VILASA 135 In the third vilasa, the following subjects are discussed-the proper code of conduct for a devotee, rising every day at the time of brahma-muhurta one hour and thirty-six minutes before sunrise to chant the glories of Kṛṣṇa, washing the face, cleansing the teeth, wearing fresh cloth, hearing and chanting about the pastimes of Kṛṣṇa in the morning, waking up the Deity while playing musical instruments, removing flowers from the alter, offering mangala-arati, the proper way to pass urine and stool; cleaning the body; rinsing the mouth; cleaning the teeth, which is to be performed right after getting up from bed; the morning bath; chanting mantras; and worshiping the Lord in the water. Back of Book: In order to arrange for the observance of vows and rituals for those who desire to obtain the ultimate goal of life, kṛṣṇa-prema, the most merciful Lord Gaurahari, who is the deliverer of the people of Kali-yuga, instructed His associate, Śrīla Sanātana Gosvami, to compose the Vaisnava smṛti, Sri Hari--vilasa.

SRI KAMAKSHI SYSTEMS PRIVATE LIMITED

Like Saundaryalahari, this satakam is also having lots of Yoga-sastra information.

Sri Hari

Rao, devotee of Sri Kanchi Kamakoti Pectam. If he somehow transcends the platform of fruitive activities and enters onto the platform of devotional service, he will naturally develop a taste for spiritual life.

Sri Hari

I was fortunate to learn the first satakam 100 slokas only, which is having only two lines in each shloka comparing to other slokatas with four lines.
