The 40 Most Mysterious Places in the Whole Entire World

In 1993 the Pope visited the Hill of Crosses, which made this place even more holy in the eyes of the Catholics from all over the world. One near the entrance had a seat and a hearth, and archaeologists have proposed it would have been used for gatherings or meetings.

5 Must See Megaliths of the Mysterious Nuragic People

It is even more out of my zone of comfort to stand at the base of the Pyramids amid enduring, searing heat in Egypt, or deep in a steamy Mexican jungle at Kukulkan, and cast my mind over questions about ancient cultures, peoples, and places.

Mysteries of Ancient Greece You Didn't Know About

Inside the tomb, you are treated to a re-enactment of how the solstice sun penetrates the tomb, exactly as the people who built it intended. For movie lovers and Harrison Ford fans, you may remember the Nazca Lines reference from the movie Indian Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull where they played a huge role in enabling the explorer-cum-professor where the hidden city lied.

Colorado's Most Mysterious and Sacred (Magical) Places

I know this because my journey has been across continents and across time. Most of these objects were recovered during the excavation such as carvings, of Buddha statues, guard stones, jewellery, ear ornaments, ivory carvings, bangles, pottery, three-tiered urinal pot, precious stones, over 300,000 beads of various materials, Hindu and Buddhist ritual objects, Roman and Indian coins, a painted slab of stones and imported and local ceramics. The Ypapanti monastery is usually open to the public, and well worth the four-and-a-half hour train ride from Athens.
