Kangaroo: Habitat, Behavior, and Diet

A female kangaroo is known as a 'flyer' or a 'doe' and a male kangaroo a 'buck' or a 'boomer' hence the nickname of the Australian men's basketball team, the Boomers. In fact, I purchased a second kit. Unlike the kangaroo, it doesn't do much cutting, so its crowns are less pronounced.

Kangaroo Facts!

Eastern Grey Kangaroos at Yourka Reserve, Qld. What a great value and I'm really enjoying my new Kangaroo system so far, and recommending to others!! Depending on the species, kangaroos occupy different niches in the ecosystem. This feature is most obvious in the large kangaroos, which use the tail as a third leg when standing still.
