That is, if they feel able to.

A Tenderfoot in Colorado by Richard Baxter Townshend

She let me write down all of issues we had and told me the boss was in a meeting but would get back with us immediately. He leaves readers with a sense of eavesdropping on history-in-the-making, which is no small accomplishment. Anthropologists and archaeologists originally thought of the Folsom culture as mobile bison hunters on the plains.

But, my friend, I can tell you this, if ever you did want it here, you'd want it powerful bad. Also, on the outskirts of what had once been the town, there stood almost a forest of little wooden crosses sticking up at all sorts of angles, survivors of more that had fallen down. You can choose to use days instead.
