[Family planning program on the island of Mauritius]

Elvis Presley and Marilyn Monroe became youth icons, with more and more youngsters wanting to be like them. Overview Family planning is one of the 10 great public health achievements of the 20th century.

Reproductive health services and managed care plans: improving the fit. The same factors accounted for increasing illegal immigration during the decade, particularly from Mexico and Central and South America, a trend that continued into the 1980s. Certain groups — including adolescents, unmarried people, the urban poor, rural populations, sex workers and people living with HIV — also face additional barriers to family planning.

1940s

In 1900, six to nine of every 1000 women died in childbirth, and one in five children died during the first 5 years of life. It is more convenient for couples not to get married because it can be cheaper and simpler. In 1970, both chambers of Congress passed Public Law 91-572, the Family Planning Services and Population Research Act, with bipartisan approval.

Recent Changes in Family Structure

Rather than killing Indians through physical violence, as had been a hallmark of federal policies into the 1870s, politicians and reformers set out to kill off all markers of Indianness: language, clothing, and cultural and spiritual practices. However, because the women were bound to their homes and had almost no social lives outside their families as such, there was a sort of dissatisfaction among them.
