Canada Total Gross External Debt

Religious affiliation is more prevalent than religious observance, though this varies by ethnic and religious group.

Culture of Canada

While there are certainly many desirable places to live in Africa, for example, most of the 54 countries there are currently not attracting droves of foreigner buyers of residential property agricultural or commercial land, however, may be a different story. Read article and see photos and videos.

Foreign Ownership, Control or Influence (FOCI)

Canada and War: A Military and Political History, 1981. After the Government of Barbados officially exited from the Windward Island union in 1885, the seat was moved from Bridgetown to on the neighbouring island of , where it remained until the territory of the Windward Islands was dissolved. Recently these programs have been altered to require recipients to perform some labor for the community in order to qualify.

Land ownership in Canada

Since 1992 Canada's inbound foreign direct investment, as a percentage of national , outpaced both the US and the G8 group of industrial countries as a whole.

Indigenous Peoples and Government Policy in Canada

Soon after Barbados' withdrawal from the Windward Islands, Barbados became aware that was going to be amalgamated with another territory as part of a single state.

Monarchy

Because of the shortness of Canadian growing seasons, a significant portion of all food consumed in Canada is imported from elsewhere in the world. There should never even be a discussion on it.

In Memoriam: Mel Watkins

Huge and increasing amounts of money have to be remitted to US owners in the form of dividends on their investment, as well as contributions by branch plants toward head office costs of administration, research, product development and advertising. In fact, it does the opposite. Instead, the two identities can and often do carry the same social and political weight, creating in Canada a diversity of identity unlike that found in other large nation-states.
