The Poetry of Richard Milhous Nixon by Richard M. Nixon

We have found ourselves rich in goods, but ragged in spirit; reaching with magnificent precision for the moon, but falling into raucous discord on earth. Nevertheless, Richard graduated from Whittier High third in his class of 207 students. No one on the staff spoke any French, but we took a French-English dictionary from the shelf and after some hard work, learned that Andre Brunet wanted to know the date, the hour, the place and the condition? Nixon Chapter 14 - Famous Citizens Chapter 15 - A Forward Look Chapter 16 - Yorba Linda - What Now? Nixon opposed busing personally but enforced court orders requiring its use.
