The agendas of Israel and the Neocons are the same because they are the same. Examining a host of related issues, from the ethnic cleansing of Palestinians to the role of Big Oil and the demonisation of the Arab world, Cook argues that the current chaos in the Middle East is the objective of the Bush administration — a policy that is equally beneficial to Israel.

They were initially assigned residency, chiefly as a way to aid in identifying and expelling Palestinian refugees trying to cross back into the new state of Israel to reach their villages. The Israelis were extremely supportive of that invasion and Cook documents their involvement with policy formation in occupied Iraq. He was told his citizenship had been revoked when he applied for a new identity card in 2000.
