Alburger has composed 340 major works over the past 46 years, including chamber music, concertos, oratorios, operas, song cycles, and symphonies. A slower central section sees a move from G minor to G major, and the transformation of one of the ideas already heard into a more yearning theme—a process echoed just before a dash to the close. He also wrote several operas, the most famous being La fiamma.

Adoration of the ~ The Imaginative Conservative

Listening CDs make a great educational supplement - hear exceptional professionals play the music you're learning! Some conservatives may look at the state of Western culture and the American Republic and see a huge dark cloud which seems ready to unleash a storm that may well wash away what we most treasure of our inherited ways.
