Crime Is No Longer a Family Business in Chicago

In the Old west there were other examples of gangs that operated in ways similar to an organized crime syndicate such as the , the , the , the , and the Bob Dozier gang. Criminal organizations therefore gravitate around illegal avenues of production, profit-making, protectionism or social control and attempt by increasing their operations or membership to make these acceptable. This varies depending on whether the person is facing the punishment for what they did, are roaming free, or if they are punishing themselves.

Crime Is Our Business

One example of human trafficking can be seen from Chen Akuei's gang who abducted a servant girl and sold her to Lin Baimao, who in turn sold her to a thirty parts of silver as wives. The group is understood to be headed by , a Chinese-Canadian gangster born in ,.
