Party Politics Volume 4 Issue 1

One of Varadkar's first acts as Taoiseach was to announce a. But it seems being part of the last government is no barrier to political resurrection. From its foundation, Fianna Fáil had no qualms about seeking financial support from the wealthy and accepted money from business circles, but exactly how, in the modern era, did it lose the balance and allow itself to become so compromised in relation to wealthy elites? Then, of course, we will have new arguments, new critiques, and hopefully new insights into the two men who shaped Ireland's destiny for some time.

FIANNA FAIL'S RECORD

His government nearly collapsed as a result of the and Deputy Prime Minister 's role in it.

Why are all these Fianna Fáil

The party says it would reduce development levies to help deliver 200,000 new homes by 2025. Varadkar resigned and was succeeded by Micheál Martin as
