A sermon preached to the Honorable House of Commons assembled in Parliament, at a publike fast, May 25. 1642

Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. And so long as wee see one of them alive, wee cannot justly doubt of his faithfulness to us.

A sermon preached to the honorable Hovse of Commons assembled in Parliament, at a publike fast, May 25, 1642

But now when wee deale with God How can wee speake of it without blushing! Your businesse lies about Laws, and Orders. Now what is Gods Patience? Deale couragiouly: the Lord shall bee with the good.

A sermon preached to the Honorable House of Commons assembled in Parliament, at a publike fast, May 25. 1642

Unlesse God issue out a Commission, and give power, none must revenge.

A Sermon Preached to the Honorable House of Commons Assembled in Parliament ...

It redounds not to the Perfon. There is nothing but Presuming, when Satan promises: nothing but Objecting, when God promises.
