Programs of study

Previous grants were used to fund after-school literacy, service-learning initiatives, sports programs for underserved and economically challenged urban communities, and before-school physical activity programs for children aged 5 through 12. Our programs are designed to build community for families, educate parents and guardians to ensure their children meet developmental milestones, and spark a love of learning in all our kids. Applying for CCP College Transfer Complete application instructions are listed in the FAQ below.

Funding Opportunities

The activity can help teach any number of skills: letter sounds, colors, vocabulary, weather, shapes, even social studies facts. In the area of education, funding is focused on the primary and secondary school levels.

I PROMISE Institute

Brooks Brothers seeks to support the communities within and beyond the areas it serves by accepting requests for donated items to be used in auctions, raffles, and other fund-raising events.

I PROMISE Institute

The LJFF College of Education also extends in-school experiences to all I PROMISE students throughout Akron Public Schools. Organizations that receive Education Outreach Grants twice in five years may only apply for a Sustaining Grant.

Edutopia

Recent grants have funded a college success program and support of charter schools working to close the achievement gap for low-income students. The Ford Foundation provides grants for projects and programs in three broad areas: 1 advancing knowledge, creativity, and achievement, 2 reducing poverty and injustice, and 3 promoting democratic values. A Little HOPE supports organizations that provide bereavement support services and grief counseling to children and teens who have experienced the death of a parent, sibling, or loved one.

Promise Program for Violence Prevention

Boeing intends to help students gain fundamental 21st century skills relevant to science, technology, engineering, and mathematics STEM , such as the ability to think critically and solve problems, collaborate well, be creative, and communicate effectively. Why Winnipeg Winnipeg is internationally recognized as an artistic centre; its supportive arts community fosters a wide range of cultural production and sustains a vibrant and creative ecosystem
