Both in new plays and musicals plus revivals of plays and musicals. She made her debut as a director with the 2000 revival of The Music Man.

Theatre Directing History, overview, part one

The idea that the gender of a director is easy to discern and that works by women have something in common simply because they are made by women makes the initial question null and void, but the research it engendered is extremely valuable to budding directors, students and critics alike. He is currently directing the new Broadway revival of Meredith Wilson's The Music Man, starring Hugh Jackman Shows include: The House of Blue Leaves, Anything Goes 1987 revival , Lend Me a Tenor 1989 revival , Six Degrees of Separation, Guys and Dolls 1992 revival , Smoky Joe's Cafe, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum 1996 revival , The Civil War, Swing! The show went on, but to avoid union and government restrictions the composer Marc Blitzstein performed his score at a piano on a bare stage while the cast shouted out their lines from the audience. In turn, he was a writer as well, contributing books to several of the classic musicals he also directed including Damn Yankees and The Pajama Game, among others.

Gleaned from interviews conducted over three years between 2014 and 2017, it's a thoroughly detailed engagement with all aspects of being a director, regardless of gender. In my opinion, what theater aims for is not simple provocation. After moving to Florida in the 1980s, Carroll continued her work as artistic director and producer of the Vinnette Carroll Repertory Company, where she remained active until her retirement in 2001.
