Rather, he argues that mental illnesses such as anxiety, thought disorder and depression disrupt the cognitive and emotional processes necessary for successful creativity. And in part, as has become increasingly apparent, because of the multiplicity of personae Plath was able to adopt in different settings and with different people, making it difficult to know when she was being sincere and when she was writing with a wry smile on her face.

Plath, Sylvia

The years in the States convinced Ted that he needed to live in England. Photo of Sylvia Plath at her gravesite. After Nicholas's birth in January 1962, Sylvia faced the fact of Hughes's infidelity, expressing herself through increasingly angry--and powerful--poems.
