Winged Words: American Indian Writers Speak

What do you have to gain? So this is an example of the wide array of words that have been incorporated into the American language from all over the world, in this case, French settlers. The joke was that people living in houses in the city got all nervous when they heard that it was land that was never sold but only leased and now 300 years later the descendants of that Chief owned the city the lease was up.

10 Typically American Words and their Meanings

The law states that native people are allowed to fish in the waters whenever they want too.
