

Joseph Werner, 1637-1710.

Schweizerisches Institut fur Kunstussenschaft - JOSEPH WERNER* (1637

Description: -

- Werner, Joseph.Joseph Werner, 1637-1710.

-Joseph Werner, 1637-1710.

Notes: Text in German.

This edition was published in 1974

Filesize: 42.79 MB

Tags: #Joseph #Werner #II #(Bern #c. #1637

Joseph Werner (1637

He began his studies with his father, then continued them in Frankfurt am Main, later went to Rome to paint and traveled to France, where, at the court of Louis XIV he painted portraits of the monarch himself, as well as the various notables in his entourage; he also worked on the decorations of the Palace of Versailles. If possible, verify the text with references provided in the foreign-language article. The lively, playful atmosphere of the youthful cavorting figures is emphatically conveyed by Father Time, who slumbers the day away from his perch in the clouds.

JOSEPH WERNER* (1637

Werner's drawings are in the Royal Castle and Cabinet of Engravings at the University Library of Warsaw. He earned a reputation as a miniatures painter at the court of the Saxon King in Dresden. As with other miniatures that can be dated to the mid-1660s, including the exceptional Apollo and Daphne of 1665 in the collection of Jean Bonna see S.

Lot

In Berlin, he was appointed Director of the newly established. Demonts, Inventaire gnral des Dessins des Ecoles du Nord, Ecoles Allemande et Suisse, Paris, 1938, II, nos.

Joseph Werner d.J. (1637

Having been called by Louis XIV to Paris in 1662, Werner established himself as the preeminent miniaturist at court. In Augsburg he worked for the Bavarian Elector, in Vienna painted portrait of the Holy Roman Emperor Leopold I, was then invited to Berlin by the Prussian King Friedrich I by then he had already earned the reputation of a miniature painter at the Court of Saxonian King in Dresden. In 1667, he left France but continued to move in exalted circles.

Related Books

- Napoleon - the last phase
- Wildwood to Rhododendron, Mt. Hood Highway \(US 26\), Clackamas County, Oregon - final environmental i
- Patronage - histories and biographies of North Dakotas federal judges
- Fragment of the law of British Guiana. - A reprint of an abstract of the law of executors
- New case for exercise - a statement prepared for the Sports Council and the Health Education Authori