The Duel by Joseph Conrad

For hours I remained by his side watching the feverish glitter of his eyes. Because of its financial success and the efforts of his American publisher, he was able to live without worrying about money for the rest of his life.

Youth, by Joseph Conrad

Feraud had arrayed himself in his best uniform before going out. It was a long letter. I saw it first, and told Mahon.

Joseph Conrad Biography, Works, and Quotes

The failure of many critics to appreciate this caused him much frustration.

Joseph Conrad's Imagination ~ The Imaginative Conservative

We were all in a tight group on the poop looking at her. It flared there, with noises like the whir of wings, with rumbles as of thunder. Footsteps scrunched on the gravel, and presently a tall stooping shape emerged from the lateral alley following the inner side of the park wall.
