Our Stories

What length should my resume be? The Democratic Party pledges: To support the rural cooperative electrification and telephone programs and to implement rural transportation programs as explained in the section Cities, Communities, Counties and the Environment of this Platform

Failures to Protect and Fulfill the Right to Education through Global Development Agendas

In line with his more progressive stance, he broke his silence to stand against the Vietnam War. Horrible as it must needs appear, the assertion is true to the very letter.

Transition and Reform: Juvenile Justice in the Republic of Ireland

No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality. The great landlords spend most of their time in England or upon the continent, and leave their lands to the management of agents, who have sub-agents for parts of the estates, and these latter often have still inferior agents. The sulphur rising up the shaft as he goes down makes his head work.

1960 Democratic Party Platform

That was the reason I took the means into my own hands. Ending the Education Deficit First and foremost, ending the education deficit means ensuring every child has a quality primary and secondary education—without the financial and systemic obstacles many face today—and that relevant governments tackle the numerous violations, abuses, or situations that keep children out of school.
