Doctrine of Faith #16 (Rogers (2014))

His elect shall be saved -- every one of them, -- and if not by my instrumentality or that of any brother here present, if not by any instrumentality, then would God sooner call them by his Holy Spirit, without the voice of the minister, than that they should perish. The Orthodox Church, for example, favors or interpretation of prophetic Scriptures and thus rejects a preliminary, premillennial return. How, then, could he have been himself a servant of, if he thought that Christ was a created person? Wesley's sermons full of that great truth, that the Holy Ghost is necessary to regeneration? On the contrary, I say, as soon as they begin to act, they prove by their action, that in them there is a depraved nature, from which they act.

Christian Doctrine (5)

Debates about justification are meaningless as justification is a Latin concept no found in the Bible.

Doctrine of Faith #16 (Rogers (2014))

Do thou, then like the , cover your face with your hands, for it is not given you to look into surpassing! Faith in this God — and lives shaped by faith in this God — is what distinguishes Christians from people who do not believe in God at all and from other religious people whose faith and life is shaped by other views of God. With the difficulties thence arising he refuses to deal, saying that whatsoever terms, taken from our knowledge of body, are used in speaking of this Divine Generation, must be understood with a spiritual meaning.

Doctrine of Faith #1 (Rogers (2014))

One of the simplest trades in the world is the raising of objections. If, then, we enquire into His natural pre-eminence, we find it to consist in being begotten.
