The Beggar's Opera by John Gay

A moment of Time may make us unhappy for ever.

The Beggar's Opera

She loves to imitate the fine Ladies, and she may only allow the Captain Liberties in the view of Interest.

Act II. John Gay. 1922. The Beggar's Opera

This is an assured and well written debut. Peachum exits with him to her chamber to get him drunk. Simply put it does not translate well, but neither, in the format of a play, does it offer a view of a different time.

The Beggar's Opera/Act 1

Besides, here the Law allows us no Reward; there is nothing to be got by the Death of Women except our Wives.
