What is funny in both senses about the case of the Goodies fan is that it involves a literalization of this metaphor. No one, not even the most loyal of fans, believes that Eric Clapton created the world in six days and rested on the seventh. I liked in particular, Psychoanalysis, postcolonialism and the Marxism chapters.

An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory

This third edition was published in 2003—I think two more newer editions have come out since then.
