Partlow Lake Railroad 000 16. . The 1920-1930 route of the Long Trail over the Deerfield River railway can be traced on the Division 2 map of the current Long Trail Guide.

Episode 12: Work In The Woods: Logging

Der Preisvorschlag durch den Käufer ist in diesem Fall erst das verbindliche Angebot auf Abschluss eines Vertrages. Foundation bricks remain there, and some railway hardware lingers in the bushes along the old roadbed. All told, this one-and-a-half mile stretch of railroad bed served seven years as an optional route, six years as a side trail, and forty-one years as the main route of the Long Trail! Because companies would allow the barren land to revert to state control due to unpaid taxes, most of the Adirondack region was owned by the state of New York, which would enable the eventual establishment of Adirondack Park.

Seward in October 1870, he submitted a report to the New York State Board of Regents. In 1920 it was purchased by a subsidiary of the New England Power Company. I then learned of the Rich Lumber Company and its Lye Brook Railroad, which climbed a wicked grade out of Manchester up Lye Brook Hollow to Bourn Pond and east into the town of Winhall north of Stratton Pond.

Logging railroads of the Adirondacks.

The fifty-four-year route of the Long Trail over the rail bed of the Lye Brook Railroad can easily be walked today. In the 1970s, the Adirondack Serial Killer, Robert Francis Garrow, petrified campers in the hills. The public hue and cry after the stripping of White Mountain and Adirondack forests led to the establishment of the White Mountain National Forest and Adirondack Park.
