He was also very good-looking, immaculately tailored, and of course highly successful. There are some faint foxing marks throughout, visible only on close inspection and some areas of slight discolouration to the sheet.

Lord Frederick Leighton

His inspiration for the piece was a statue named Night done by , as the woman's pose resembles the 's work. It is also to be remembered that he took the tools of his profession with him, and in 1998, an oil sketch of a Head of a Girl painted during this holiday was sold at Sotheby's. On 6 January 1869 Leighton was elected to command the Artists Rifles by a general meeting of the corps.
