100th Infantry Battalion

The 442nd had the support of the 522nd and 133rd Field Artillery units but at first made little headway against German General Richter's infantry and artillery front line. Additional notes: The men who were assigned to Cat Island project were: Major James Lovell who escorted the group to the location, Lieutenant Rocco Marzano, Lieutenant Ernest Tanaka and Herbert Ishii of Headquarters Company who was the cook.

Japanese Eyes American Heart

On February 23, 1942, Emmons gave his blessing to the formation of the Varsity Victory Volunteers, an all-Nisei labor battalion. Used items may not include supplementary materials such as CDs or access codes. A year after more 50,000 African Americans had served in Europe in World War I, seventy African American men were lynched in the U.

In all, the 100th and 442nd received 9,486 Purple Hearts, 8 Presidential Unit Citations, 559 Silver Stars, and 52 Distinguished Service Crosses among many other decorations. I couldn't put this book down! Colonel Rolin's grenadiers put up a desperate fight, but nothing could stop the Nisei rushing up the steep slopes, shouting, firing from the hip, and lobbing hand grenades into dugouts. The fortitude and intrepidity displayed by the officers and men of the 100th Infantry Battalion reflects the finest traditions of the Army of the United States.
