Many Section 5311 subrecipients are private nonprofit organizations, and in some cases a single agency receives funding under both Section 5311 and Section 5310. For example, Congress did not exempt UAC from the bar on filing successive applications for asylum INA 208 a 2 C , a 2 C , the various bars to asylum eligibility in section 208 b 2 A of the Act, b 2 A , or the bars, like this one, established pursuant to the Departments' authorities under section 208 b 2 C of the Act, b 2 C .

Federal :: Bus and Bus Facilities Formula Program: Guidance and Application Instructions

States have broad discretion in deciding how best to provide assistance and implement projects under the state program.

Step

The Ninth Circuit recently concluded that the Attorney General's discretion to limit eligibility for asylum was narrower than the discretion to grant or deny asylum to aliens who are eligible for such relief. It also refers to aliens who have spent at least a year in a third country, regardless of whether such status was available. FTA notes that the law does not stipulate that Governors must prioritize vehicle replacements before expansions and facilities.
